

GREAT FESTIVAL OF SONG ENJOYED BY MANY GOOD SINGERS AT RELIANCE

The Brazos County Singing Convention Was Revived Sunday at Reliance After Three Years Lapse—Great Throngs of People Present and Splendid Dinner Served—Convention Will Meet Twice Annually In Future—Proposed To Build Large Tabernacle in Central Portion of the County.

The Brazos County Singing Convention, after being disbanded for the past three years on account of the war, met Sunday pursuant to the call of the president in annual convention at Reliance church. There was a very large crowd present and the day was one of the most pleasant in the history of the convention. Many were present from Grimes and Madison counties and some as far away as Leon and Robertson counties.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m. with President J. C. Cloud presiding and Secretary R. F. Crenshaw at his post. After a song led by the president, the following committees were appointed:

Program—N. F. Outlaw, J. W. Parker, T. L. Tobias and Arch Murray.

Arrangement of parts—W. B. Cook, John Stockton, J. S. Whitten. Suggestions and Good of Order—M. Cook, E. U. Peters and W. B. English.

Following the appointment of the committees, the remainder of the forenoon was devoted to singing. The greater part of the singing was by the entire convention, but there were some special songs by prominent singers assisted by others of the same community and with whom they had practiced.

At 12:30 adjournment was taken for dinner after an announcement by the president that there was plenty for all and that everybody was cordially invited to remain for dinner. A long table had been erected in a shady grove of stately oaks and boxes and baskets of good things to eat were brought out from wagons, buggies and automobiles and spread on the tables until they fairly groaned. It was a great dinner and the cordial hospitality of the people was even greater. Great barrels of ice water with hundreds of drinking cups, was another thoughtful provision that added much to the comfort and enjoyment of the occasion.

At 1:30 the convention reassembled and practically all the remainder of the time was devoted to singing. The report of the committee on Suggestions and Good of Order was read by Chairman I. M. Cook as follows:

1.—We urge committee on Suggestions and Good of Order, beg leave to report as follows: We suggest the convention meet semi-annually instead of annually, on the first Sunday in May and October of each year and that the next convention be held May first Sunday, 1921. That the sessions be one day only.

2.—That we devote as much of the day as possible to singing, making our business sessions as brief as possible to attend to the business of the convention.

3.—That we request every one in Brazos county who attends the convention to bring lunch.

4.—That we accept all singers and ministers of the gospel as members and entitled to vote in the convention.

5.—That we elect officers at the next regular meeting, May 1921, and that the present officers hold over until that time.

After some discussion, the report of the committee was unanimously adopted, and beginning with next year the convention will meet twice annually in one day sessions, instead of once a year in two-day sessions as heretofore.

The question of the erection of a large tabernacle at some central point in the county where the sessions of the convention can be held, and that is large enough to seat all the people, was brought up and discussed by Rev. Eck Smith and A. W. Buchanan. On motion the president was empowered to appoint a committee of ten from different parts of the county to select a place for the erection of the tabernacle and to devise ways, means, etc. This committee will be appointed later by the president, J. C. Cloud, and published in the Eagle. It was the sense of the convention that an effort be made to have the tabernacle ready before the time of the next convention.

Following were the leaders who directed the singing, as furnished the Eagle representative by Secretary Crenshaw: R. F. Crenshaw, Henry Denman, John Davis, Fred Murray, Miller Henderson, Marion Fry, Louis Thompson, W. B. English, J. H. Stockton, E. H. Walton, W. B. Cook, Barlia Risinger, Willis Kelley, Jack Thompson, George Jones, John Whitten, Britton Risinger, Arch Murray, Bolen Lloyd, W. A. Petet, C. F. Francis, Will Henry, C. W. Carroll, E. B. Stedman, Floy Magnus, Robert Magnus, Ben Magnus, Albert Keith, C. L. Francis, J. W. Parker, Jess Hicks, W. T. Conway and E. U. Peters. A feature of the convention was the splendid singing by Floy Magnus, the little ten year old son of Robert Magnus of Madison county.

Special songs were led by O. L. Francis, Floy Magnus, L. H. Magnus, Robt. Magnus, Miller Henderson, John Parker and others.

At 4:30 the convention adjourned after one of the most pleasant and successful sessions in all the forty-five years of its history.

MISS IMA COOK ILL IN GALVESTON

Miss Ima Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Cook of Steep Hollow, and who has been serving this year as Home Demonstration Agent of Robertson county, is very ill in Galveston. She was visiting in that city and on Sunday was taken suddenly and seriously ill with appendicitis, an operation being necessary at once.

At 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mr. J. D. Martin of this city received a telegram from Galveston informing him of her illness and requesting that her parents be notified. Mr. Martin phoned them at once and they came into the city and left for the bedside of their daughter last night. Later in the night Mr. Martin received another message stating that the operation had been performed and that her condition was serious. The many friends of Miss Cook and her parents are anxiously awaiting a more favorable report from her.

DEMOCRATS ARE NOW SEEING BUT FEW OF OLD TIME LANDMARKS

(By Associated Press) San Francisco, July 7.—Visitors to the Democratic National Convention are seeing but few reminders of the old, romantic days of San Francisco, when the red-shirted miners swept down from the gold-streaked reaches of the Sierras and threw fistfuls of "pay dirt" on the bars or the store counters for whatever they wished to purchase. Gone is the roaring "Barbary Coast" and its less picturesque environs. "Bottle" Koenig and "Bottle" Meyers who used to run noisy cock fighting establishments in what is now the shadow of the Hall of Justice have long since passed on and the "Montana Dance Hall," most blaring and blatant of all the coast resorts is hardly a memory.

Chinatown guides still point out the little restaurant hanging precariously over Dupont street where Frank Norris, the author went occasionally to get a bit of local color. Directly ahead and facing the Hall of Justice is Portsmouth Square, a cove for the city's human drift where the Vigilantes staged many a stirring scene and the "sand lotters" under the leadership of fiery Dennis Kearney, discussed the town's political issues. Most of the old cafes, where much of the city's history was plotted, remain in name only. Gone is Duncan Nichols, the "Bank Exchange" of former days where the famous Pisco Punch was served over a mahogany bar that was brought around the Horn. The old Cliff House, where presidents of the United States and other renowned itinerants used to enjoy the sea food breakfasts, was burned years ago.

On Waverly Place still may be seen the quarters of the old Siberia Club, stronghold of Yee Mee, "King of Chinatown." Here, before the police "axe policies" became a feature of Chinatown the chance games of "coon can," "chuck-a-luck" and "fan-tan" were played in the midst of a maze of corridors, sliding panels worked by secret springs and exotic odors of opium and Chinese dishes.

The black docks that lined the "Front" from China Basin to the Presidio are gone and stately berths for ocean liners have risen in their place. The dingy bars that stood back of them, where adventurers of all degrees were once dropped, drug-stupefied, through trap-doors and into waiting boats below as part of the great "shanghai" game, all have been swept away. The "shanghai" was the system for recruiting the crews of the "lime-juicers," the great deep sea barks, that plied principally between San Francisco and South American ports.

Nob Hill, once the home of the city's elite, shows a collection of jagged foundations, much as the great fire left it. "South of the Slot," the ancient tenements have given way to smart apartments in their midst standing the slowly disintegrating ruins of the "Mission of Sorrows," known in the Spanish as the "Mission Dolores," built in 1776 by the Franciscans. It is the best memento of the romantic old San Francisco that endures.

SENATOR DAVIDSON IN BRYAN ON VISIT

Senator Lynch Davidson, of Houston, candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas is in Bryan, the guest of his friend, W. S. Howell. Senator Davidson attended the barbecue and picnic at Edge today, meeting the people of Brazos county. He is recognized as one of the leading and successful men of Texas and has served in the Texas legislature with distinction and has had much to do with the shaping of constructive legislation. Senator Davidson comes under the Jeffersonian test: "He is honest, capable, worthy and a democrat." Hence he is in every way equipped to fill the office of lieutenant governor.

JOE MERKA CAUGHT THOUSANDS OF BUGS IN COTTON FIELD

Joe Merka, a substantial Bohemian farmer who lives seven miles northwest of Bryan, was in town today and brought with him a large glass jar that contained thousands of bugs of every description. The Eagle believes it would be perfectly safe in saying there were fully five thousand of them and they were all caught by Mr. Merka around one lantern in his cotton patch last night. He had a large pan, about three feet square, and four inches deep, made and last night filled it with water with a coating of kerosene oil on top, and placed it in his cotton field. A block of wood was placed in the pan and a lantern set on the wood. The bugs were attracted to the light and while swarming around it, fell into the water and oil. This morning when Mr. Merka visited his "trap" he found it full and running over. It was such a sight he placed them in a jar and brought them to town and they were seen by many with much interest. In the lot there were sharpshooters, caterpillars and a number of other bugs that destroy cotton, but no boll weevils. Mr. Merka says he believes the weevils are such tough brutes, they just crawled out of the water and oil and went on their way. He also believes that with just a few lanterns and pans, farmers can practically rid their fields of cotton destroying pests, if they begin in time and keep up the fight. This plan has been recommended by many who have given the question of cotton pests a careful study, and it is so simple that any one can follow the directions. In these days of cotton destroying pests when the farmers of Texas are losing millions of dollars annually because of them, no weapon should be overlooked that will help in the fight against them.

PROF. BOLTON WILL RETURN FROM NORTH

(By Associated Press) College Station, Texas, July 6.—F. C. Bolton, head of the school of electrical engineering of A. and M. College will return in a day or so from eastern cities where he has been conducting a party of electrical engineering seniors and juniors of the college on a tour of inspection of electrical plants and institutions. The party included approximately forty of next year's juniors and seniors who will report to Camp Vail, New Jersey, for the Signal Corps Training.

The itinerary included visits to Pittsburgh, New York City, Albany and Schenectady, where the Westinghouse and Western Electrical Company, American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Waterside Station of the New York Edison Company and other large plants were inspected.

BIG KIDNAPPING CASE ON TRIAL TOMORROW

(By Associated Press) Tombstone, Ariz., July 7.—Two millionaires, three high executives of mining companies, one mayor, three physicians, and a secretary of a commercial club are named as defendants, jointly with 149 others, in the case of the State of Arizona versus the Phelps Dodge corporation and others, the trial which began in the superior court here recently. The charge is kidnapping, arising out of the deportation of 1,186 striking copper miners and their sympathizers from Bisbee, Arizona, to Columbus and Hermans, New Mexico, July 12, 1917.

Two of the defendants whose names appeared on the information lists as originally filed have died. They are Pete Corkhill and Clarence Ingram both of Bisbee.

This is the second kidnapping case resulting from the deportations. The first was that of Harry E. Wootton, Bisbee hardware dealer, who was acquitted here last spring. It is probable that the defense in this trial, as in that of Wootton, will be chiefly the plea of necessity, the contention being that the expulsion of nearly 1,200 men from the Warren mining district was necessary for the safety of the people and the property of the people of that district. The defense in the Wootton case alleged that most of the men shipped to New Mexico had planned the destruction of the district and the overthrow of the government of the United States.

The greater number of men who faced the court recently were miners, muckers and shift bosses. About 10 per cent of the defendants were business or professional men.

EDGE PICNIC TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

At the last moment the clouds having rolled away Chairman Sam B. Wilson decided that the business men of Bryan would attend the Edge picnic Wednesday, July 7. They will leave in automobiles at 10 o'clock from the Chamber of Commerce corner as heretofore stated. Do not fail to be on hand at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and go to Edge and other places.

TEXAS HAS BIGGEST ROAD CONTRACT EVER AWARDED

(By Associated Press) Phoenix, Ariz., July 7.—What was said to be the largest single road construction contract ever awarded in the United States, exceeding by $500,000 the one recently awarded by Maricopa county, Arizona, was awarded in Texas to a local firm, according to word received here today from Ranger, Texas.

The contract calls for construction of 150 miles of hard surfaced roads and fifty miles of graded roads in Eastland county under a bond issue of $4,500,000.

A CODE OF LAWS OLDER THAN 2100 B. C. BELIEVED FOUND

(By Associated Press) Philadelphia, July 6.—What is said to be the oldest known written code of laws in the world, probably antedating that of Hammurabi by at least 1000 years, has been discovered in part among the hitherto untranslated clay tablets from Nippur at the University of Pennsylvania museum. The Hammurabi code was prepared about 2100 B. C., and was discovered about 20 years ago on a large diorite stone by French explorers.

The laws, which have just been translated by Abbe Scheil of Paris, deal with responsibility of hired servants, with trespass on farms and orchards, harboring of slaves, rentals, rights of slave women who have borne children to their masters, punishment for adultery, etc. One interesting statute provides that rentals must run for three years, in case a man has taken over the house the owner does not know how to manage. This is somewhat obscure and may mean that all rentals were for that term. In any event property could not lie idle or be improperly used if some one was willing to use it for public or private benefit.

In case of a slave bearing children to her master she and the offspring were free and if the master married the slave the children became legitimate. In general, the laws show a high state of civilization existing when they were written and indicate millenniums of previous experiences in settled communities. They deal with personal and property rights on a basis somewhat like that of the Deuteronomic code. It is thought possible the tablets were textbooks used at the great university of Nippur.

The discoveries are considered of the highest importance and search will be made for further tablets containing additional laws.

THE PUBLIC SHOULD BE CONSIDERED BEFORE EVERYBODY STRIKES

(By Associated Press) Philadelphia, Penn., July 7.—The strike of shopmen of the Pennsylvania system, scheduled for today, has been deferred indefinitely, according to announcement of Harry S. Jeffrey, leader of the six local allied shop crafts. The decision to call off the walkout was reached after conferences of labor leaders with government officials and W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Jeffrey said that he and other leaders had arrived at the conclusion that the public is a bigger factor than the principles at issue between the railroads and the shopmen, and that they have placed their case before General Atterbury, confident that he will review it impartially and adjust the grievances satisfactorily.

MISS SANDERS WILL GRADUATE AT C. I. A.

(Special to the Eagle.) Denton, Texas, July 3.—Miss Lillie Fae Sanders of Bryan will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science at the close of the summer session of the College of Industrial Arts, Denton, Texas, August 19, at which time fifty other young women of Texas will receive degrees, diplomas, and certifications. Miss Sanders taught Home Economics in the Coleman High School last year and has been re-elected to the same position for next year.

Miss Sanders very creditably represented Bryan in the College of Industrial Arts, which is now the largest college for women in the United States with the exception of Smith and Wellesly, and which has enrolled this year 1462 girls in the regular session and 666 in the summer session, or a total of 2128 Texas girls. The class with which Miss Sanders will graduate will be composed of fifty of the finest girls of Texas, and this number added to the number of graduates at the close of the regular session, June 1, make 260 graduates that C. I. A. has sent forth this year to serve as leaders in the homes and the communities of Texas. In the summer session at C. I. A. more than 200 regular college courses are offered in addition to instruction for Teachers State Certificates by the faculty of seventy-five members.

COX OF OHIO IS NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT; ROOSEVELT OF NEW YORK FOR VICE-PRES.

On the 44th Ballot All Candidates Withdrew in Favor of Governor Cox and His Nomination Was Unanimous—Texas Goes Down in McAdoo Column—President Wilson Congratulates Cox On His Successful Nomination.

(By Associated Press) San Francisco, June 6.—Governor James M. Cox, three times governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency early this morning by the Democratic National Convention in the break up of one of the most prolonged deadlocks in the history of national political parties. It took forty-four ballots, and not until A. Mitchell Palmer withdrew on the thirty-eighth ballot, did the succession of roll calls show a definite trend. In the turnover of Palmer's delegates Cox gained the advantage over William G. McAdoo. With a choice made the convention adjourned at 1 a. m. until two, Texas time, to name a candidate for the vice presidency.

Many changes which would have been made had vote been carried through were never recorded on face of ballot. Cox received 702 1-2 votes but they were never totaled for he was nominated finally by unanimous voice of the convention. Texas delegates cast solid forty votes for McAdoo as long as voting continued.

ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

(By Associated Press) San Francisco, July 7.—The delegates to the Democratic National Convention were glad when their work was done, and the convention adjourned. After nominating Gov. James M. Cox for president, F. D. Roosevelt, of New York, assistant secretary of navy, was nominated for vice president by acclamation after several candidates presented before him had withdrawn their names. The leaders are elated over the spirit of harmony which prevailed in the last hours of the convention, which they took for evidence that all differences are buried and a determination to work hard for the election of the ticket as chosen. Roosevelt is due to leave during the day for Dayton, Ohio, to consult with his running mate, Governor Cox, where preliminary campaign plans will be mapped out. It is generally agreed the convention was a great success.

Mr. McAdoo Was Greatly Relieved.

(By Associated Press) Huntington, N. Y., July 6.—When William G. McAdoo was informed upon rising today that Governor Cox had been nominated by the Democrats, his only comment was: "I am relieved and delighted that the call did not come to me." Mr. McAdoo showed every evidence he was pleased. Mrs. McAdoo said "That's great." The McAdoo family was happy again.

GOV. COX FAVORS RATIFICATION OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

(By Associated Press) Dayton, July 7.—Cox expressed the opinion in reply to an inquiry from the chairman of the Democratic central committee of Louisiana, that it is a duty the Louisiana legislature owes the Democratic party to ratify the suffrage amendment at once.

MONTGOMERY-WARD CO. CHARGED WITH FALSIFYING RECORD

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 7.—The federal trade commission has cited Montgomery Ward and Co., Chicago mail order house, in a formal complaint of unfair competition in the sale of liquid roofing cement. The charge is made that false representations were made by the company in its catalogue when liquid roofing cement was advertised as containing no coal tar. It is claimed the company knew it did contain coal tar.

CAPT. CHILTON REMEMBERS MR. JOHN A. MOORE, JR.

Mr. John A. Moore, Jr., who served as chairman of the entertainment committee of the Bryan Chamber of Commerce, during the recent meeting of Hood's Texas Brigade here, is in receipt of a handsome bound volume containing the history of the immortal Brigade during the War Between the States in the 60's from Capt. Frank B. Chilton, of Houston. Capt. Chilton sends the book to Mr. Moore because of his appreciation of his services while the old soldiers were in Bryan. Mr. Moore prizes the gift very highly.

OHIO WILL BE THE BATTLE GROUND FOR THE PRESIDENCY

(By Associated Press) Columbus, Ohio, July 7.—Ohio, "mother of presidents' state," will be the battle ground of the greatest political campaign in her history this summer, with two native sons contesting for the presidency of the United States. While Marion, the home of Senator Harding, the republican nominee, and Dayton, the home of Governor Cox, the Democratic standard bearer will come in for their share of prominence, eyes of the nation will be centered on the capital city of Ohio, where much of the work of the campaign will be carried on. It is the first time in history that both parties have picked their nominees from the same state and incidentally the first time two newspaper publishers have been pitted against each other for the chief executives of the nation. Republican campaign plans are in the making here but not until democratic leaders return from San Francisco will the plans for the formal nomination of Governor Cox be completed. This event will probably take place at his home in Dayton. Senator Harding will be formally notified of his selection to be the republican standard bearer at his home in Marion July 22.

UGLY CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST ATTY. GENERAL PALMER

(By Associated Press) Chicago, July 7.—William Armstrong, a Chicago lawyer, presented a mass of documentary evidence which he said would prove Attorney General Palmer "had abused the power of his office in order to influence delegates to the Democratic convention."

COLLEGE RIFLE TEAM WON LOVING CUP

College Station, Texas, July 7.—The loving cup won by the Texas A. & M. College rifle team in competition with teams from other military institutions of the Southern Department has been received by the Department of Military Science and Tactics of the college here. A. & M. won the match from competitors from New Mexico, Oklahoma and Arkansas in gallery competitions with a score of 1,652 out of a possible 2,000. New Mexico Military Institute was second.

SHILOH BARBECUE.

The barbecue given Monday at Shiloh near the A. and M. College under direction of V. J. Boriskie and J. H. Krenak, was attended by a very large crowd and was a splendid success from every standpoint. The rain in the early morning interfered with the preparation of the meats, but it was removed from the pits and placed under a tent and after the rain stopped the pits were soon dried out and cooking was resumed, completing the work in good time for dinner. There was much oratory furnished by the county candidates, and good music by the Bryan band, making a very enjoyable day for all present.

ONE MORE DEATH NO NEW CASES AT BEAUMONT, TEX.

(By Associated Press) Beaumont, Tex., July 7.—No new cases of bubonic plague were reported here today, although one of the victims of the disease, a small boy, died this afternoon after an illness of three days. Three other victims are recovering. A test of 135 rats caught in various parts of the city today disclosed that thirteen were infected with plague. City officials are directing all their energies to the cleanup drive here. Nearly 700 tons of rubbish has been removed to the city dump in two days.

PROCEEDINGS ASK TO BAR SUFFRAGE BY INJUNCTION

(By Associated Press) Washington, July 7.—Proceedings asking that the Secretary of State be enjoined from issuing a proclamation declaring the suffrage amendment ratified when the thirty-sixth state acts favorably, was instituted in the District of Columbia Supreme Court today by the President of the American Constitutional League. The basis of the suit is the contention that ratification by West Virginia was illegal because it was accomplished by fraud, and that ratification by Tennessee would be illegal.

PROFITEERS IN BOTH LABOR AND CAPITAL ARE AT WORK

(Special to the Eagle) Washington, D. C., July 7.—The evidence of increasing unemployment in some of the largest centers of the country is not reassuring. Railroad congestion, which has been contributed to by strikes, has thrown many workers out of jobs in the coal mining and automobile manufacturing districts. Textile workers and garment workers are in enforced idleness in considerable numbers because the public has refused to pay higher prices for clothing, and is curtailing its buying.

In Chicago building operations have been reduced and there is idleness among the building trades because contractors refuse to sign new work at present wage scales and profiteering in building materials.

If unemployment becomes widespread within the next few months, labor must accept a large share of the responsibility for such an unfavorable development. By constantly increasing its demands for more pay and shorter hours, it has aided in putting up the cost of production to the point where the public is holding off and cutting down on consumption.

The buying power of the public is now weaker than it was a few months ago. Unemployment of large numbers, if continued long, will further weaken the purchasing power of the public, and tend to increase unemployment further. We will again be around the other way from which we have been going in the ascending scale.

The profiteers in both labor and capital have been operating on the theory of charging as much as the traffic will bear. They should understand that they put on the peak load some time ago, and that a breakdown is inevitable if the pressure be not lightened.

Killing the goose that lays the golden egg is a shortsighted policy in the long run. If continued the present conditions will call forth destruction of all business and the farmer will have to support himself, and let the balance of the world freeze and starve. The people of the United States seem to be fatally stricken with the unrest.

Dallas has the finest jail in the world.

We've been waiting a long time for another "Cross of gold and crown of gold" speech—since July 4, 1896.

Perry Perriwinkle says it is not so much the time a man gets up in the morning but what he does after he gets up. Perhaps.

Even Germany seems to have the hook worm. Whenever a nation quits work and goes to fighting, loafing and stealing the end is near.

If it had been known sooner how wicked Galveston was the sands would not have held the Dallas, Houston, Waco and San Antonio tourists.

There was a riot in St. Louis in a fur store Thursday. It was the hottest day in the year. Perhaps it was a cool day for the rioters compared with what is coming.

"What has become of the old-fashioned Overall Club," asks Perry Perriwinkle? We presume the boys who got up these clubs went to work and forgot to wear overalls.

Even New York is disappointed with the census. New York, however, is big enough for ordinary purposes—and probably the largest city in the world and is not happy.

The latest photo of William J. Bryan resembles that of Julius Caesar. Still politicians are not happy. Bryan will not live forever and a day. Cheer up.

The old soldiers of Hood's Brigade are already making preparations to come back to Bryan in June, 1921. They went home happy and God bless them—we will be happy to welcome them again a year hence.

We noticed the picture of Colonel George Bailey on the front page of the Houston Post Friday and we shouted: "Hallelujah." We thought at first glance George had been nominated for President at Frisco.

Colonel Bailey, of the Houston Post, says the speeches at the Frisco convention were "too long." Nearly all speeches are too long. The Eagle suggested to a minister friend the other day: "Shorter hours and double pay." He has not yet answered.

Philosopher Perry Perriwinkle came to Bryan Thursday with one shoe rough and one shoe shined. He said that the clock struck three while the blackbird had him and he couldn't finish the job under the rules. Moral: Shine your own shoes.

After awhile it will take a millionaire to build a chicken coop. The men who are building air planes are striking for a raise in salary from $133.00 per day to $199.00 per day with only three hours work per week and have to be transported daily 160 miles in airplanes to and from their alleged work.

Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post, sold his Palm Beach suit in Frisco and bought an overcoat. On the way home at Needles he will sell his overcoat for a towel filled with cracked ice to put on his head. He will then be a pretty specimen of clad genius to come back to Heavenly Houston.

"Four Highway Robberies In Oil Fields—Deputies Go To Quell Crime Wave." It is said the oil production is growing weaker around Wichita Falls and the boys are getting desperate. A ham sandwich costs $1.98 and a drink of booze is $9.99. On with the battle—but stay away from Wichita Falls unless you want a fight day and night.

There are wonderful crop prospects in Brazos county. The corn has pulled through nicely and now cotton is just booming. In 1906 Brazos county produced 40,000 bales and it might do so in 1920. We are not looking for the boll worm, boll weevil and other pests and the clouds have a glorious silver lining.

It begins to look as though it will take more than a shower of fire and brimstone to purify Galveston. There are at least 1,000 stalwart young men there standing guard who should be at home at work. Who ever is responsible for this condition should be punished to the limit. Texas needs all her men in the active affairs of life.

In June the marriage license record of Harris county was broken by the issuance of 437 permits. There are two thousand divorces on the docket and one judge granted seventy divorces in one hour or one every fifty seconds. Hundreds of divorce cases, the records show, are filed in from two weeks to two months. There seems to be a marriage craze and a divorce craze on in Heavenly Houston.

EIGHT REAL HOURS ENOUGH

The Texas Farm & Ranch dramatically asks: "Where are the Workers?" and the Farm & Ranch continues: "There is work and high prices for the old and the young and the strong and vigorous. Surely the fields are white unto harvest, but the laborers are few." Where are the willing laborers? Where are the hands who want an opportunity to do a full day's work for a full day's pay? Strikes, demands for shorter days and more pay, and idleness are a serious reflection on a brave and patriotic people who have won a world war. Are people not willing to help get society back to normal conditions? It will take hard work, more than an eight-hour day to produce the food, clothing and other necessities the people need." Eight hours as a days work is enough for any man provided he works eight hours. That gives us eight hours to work, eight hours to play and eight hours to sleep. Days and hours lost are lost forever unless we make them good. Time lost during the supposed eight hours is disastrous. There must be eight full hours of work for every work day in the year. This applies to every class on earth. Six hours or three hours now and then will not save the world. Time put in loafing on the job will not save the present prosperity. It matters not how much money we receive the money must be valuable and have a purchasing power. Eight hours of real work six days in the week is enough and deserves good pay, but all time lost and pay going on for it amounts to the breakdown and collapse of business and work. That is exactly the trouble now. The people of the United States are not doing eight hours work through inefficiency and incompetency—in other words we are not performing a man's job. We have the new disease of unrest and are treading on dangerous ground.

ESSENTIALS FOR SUCCESS

(By John Johnson)

When we start a task of any kind, it is usually with zeal, energy and determination. But before we proceed very far, or at least before the job is finished, we begin to lag or slow our pace. This is human nature. But one god way to avoid this depressed spirit that is likely to be with us is to be judicious in the planning and performing of our work. We all will doubtless confess that there are too many haphazard beginnings and consequently as many corresponding failures. Is our work always devised and planned with good judgment? Surely it is not; but too often we "pitch in" and follow the line of least resistance and place the failure at various and sundry causes, when in fact we are usually to blame.

Another thing which contributes greatly to our success is the love we have for our work. This is true whether the task be great or small, and applies not only to one profession, but to all. If we have no interest in the work we are doing, then we should quit the side track and get on the main line. The world is asking for wholehearted efforts along lines at which we are best fitted. Especially at this critical period through which we are passing, we owe it to ourselves and others to stop the leakage that results from misfitted professions, and as the old proverb says: "Even though a man lives in the woods and can build a better mouse trap than his neighbor, the world will make a beaten path to his door." Application and efficiency of man can work wonders.

LAX BUSINESS METHODS

Every now and then the government writes the Eagle a letter advising us to save our money. If the government would cut out so much propaganda and discharge about 250,000 useless employees it would be aiding in the thrift and the saving movement.—Bryan Daily Eagle.

The government has been long on advice to the people ever since the war began, but a good deal of the advice it has given has not been followed in Washington. The government's advice to save would have more weight did it practice what it preaches. But the advice to save is good, no matter from what source it comes, and everybody should act favorably upon it. Thrift campaigns, however suggest an opportunity for the people to send word to Washington that they demand economy there. The government will be just what the people make it. Extravagant people, extravagant government; thrifty people, economical government.—Houston Post.

If the Eagle and other business concerns in the country conducted their activities on the same basis as the government does, nearly all would be bankrupt. Government conducted by taxation and politicians is generally inefficient and incompetent in details. That is exactly the reason of the railway breakdown. The railroad business was badly managed from top to bottom. There are too many employees in all lines of business—hence the waste, extravagance and high costs of everything. The government is particeps criminis and should reform and that instantly.

BUSINESS COURTESY

The Eagle would suggest to certain representatives of corporations and other institutions that live business courtesy and efficiency is a splendid asset. Because a man has a subordinate place with some big concern is no reason he should be arrogant and incompetent. A small man in a big place makes it very hard on those who are trying to work under the most disastrous conditions ever before in the country. The Eagle understands the ethics and comity between business institutions and is aware of the proprieties on several occasions. It is a good thing to have a little more courtesy and efficiency and not so much brutality and incompetency in several lines of public business. "A word to the wise is sufficient." Or at least it should be.

We must have the nominating speeches every four years. "On with the Battle."

LET THE POLITICIANS DO IT.

We know of two prominent men in the Southwest who had been good friends and became bitter enemies over the candidacy of two other men for the United States senate. The candidates cared little or nothing for the two private citizens except their votes.

Now that another campaign is on, would it not be a good idea for every man to agree not to become angry in political discussions and refuse to discuss politics with any man who does not let reason and tolerance guide him? The support of every politician in the state is not enough to justify one in making an enemy of his neighbor.

One of the peculiarities of the American people is that they will get wrought up over the claims of some candidate for office who lives hundreds of miles away and does nothing for and cares little about the individual voter in the small town or in his rural section. If the politicians want any fighting or quarreling done, we favor letting them do it themselves.—Texas Farm and Ranch.

Some twenty-five years ago in a Southwest Texas county in an old election feud over a high office of the United States eight or ten men engaged in a street duel and three were killed and two were wounded. There were three homes husbandless and fatherless and two men were dying. Five men stood charged with murder in the first degree. It was a sad day in that county that night and men walked the streets armed to the teeth ready to kill at the dropping of the hat. It was all over two candidates no one of the parties knew. The candidates knew not and cared less. That night the defeated candidate wired his successful opponent his congratulations and pledged his support to him in office and it was all over. The next day three new made graves were filled and the memories and bitterness of the feud which still lives in Southwest Texas. It is a bad idea for citizens and neighbors to kill each other over political leaders.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

"Bryan Wins Heart of Nation But Loses Issues of Big Convention," declares a newspaper headline. In 1896 Bryan was a poor newspaper reporter at $50 per week. He made his "cross of gold and crown of thorns" speech which has never been equalled in political annals. He capitalized his nomination and defeat for the presidency and now owns three magnificent homes in the United States. He is a millionaire. He lost at Frisco but his defeat can be capitalized at about $1,000,000 and he can finish his life-work on the Chautauque platform. Bryan knows how to charge for his speeches. They will go up now. But no man has ever been elected president of the United States who charged the people $2.00 per head to hear him speak on the public platform. Bryan ran three times for the presidency and has been a candidate for thirty years. He is a remarkable man and began life poor but will die rich. The Eagle will not worry over Mr. Bryan's defeat at San Francisco. That defeat alone is a fortune to him—perhaps. More money than the next ten men you meet after reading this will ever be able to make.

The railways of the United States are calling for aid from the government of about $500,000,000 to put the roads in order. The Orient railway is calling for about $5,000,000 to save it from bankruptcy in Texas. Now comes the stockmen of Kansas asking for $10,000,000 or $15,000,000 to save their industry. Unless we get more iron in our blood the American people will soon be a nation of incompetents and beggars. We are not doing a full day's work, hence production is becoming alarmingly short. It is said there are fully 5,000,000 able bodied men in the United States who are not working or are doing non-essential labor. It is about time for American patriotism, courage and valor to face about and take stock of the nation's resources and go to work.

The Waco News-Tribune says: "Twelve women shoppers have been arrested in Houston recently. Which just goes to show that there are some crooks on the shopping side of the counter as well as on the other side." The situation is deplorable in Houston. Too many people go to these cities to live without honest work. Shop girls who receive $20 per week cannot live and purchase $15 silk stockings and other clothing in proportion to wear all the time. Somebody must pay the bill. The Eagle has pointed out time and again these conditions and has not only received no support from the Houston press and people but has been condemned for telling the truth. The Eagle understands these things are called "opportunities" in Heavenly Houston.

Congressman Claude Hudspeth, of El Paso, announces that his office will be open in Washington during the congressional vacation so that persons in his Texas district can have their business attended to. Why not? There are men employed to do this work and every public official in Washington should have a man's job or his services discontinued. The taxpayers are footing the bill and putting up the money for many things they are not receiving. Hence there is so much inefficiency, waste and extravagance in public affairs. The people are paying the bills.

The Corpus Christi Daily Times says: "The scenery from the Times front windows has changed from a grove of mulberry trees to a billboard of movie plays and a barber shop, where the barber fanned a recumbent victim with a towel. Such are the advantages of civilization." O, well, Madame Editor Gerhardt, you are to be congratulated. We heard a young urchin remark the other day that he just loved movie bill boards to look at for a hundred years and then turn to Charlie Chaplin.

Reunion Notes

One of the prettiest incidents connected with the recent reunion of Hoods Brigade in this city, occurred Tuesday night during the address of Capt. Frank Chilton of Houston. He stated that he had that day met a grand niece of General John B. Hood and that he had fallen in love with her and she was his Bryan sweetheart. He then called for Miss Dorothy Doane, the winsome little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Doane, and presented her with a beautiful medal. The main portion of the medal was made of a piece of one of the guns from Fort Sumpter where the first shots were fired in the war between the states. It was adorned with the flag of the Confederacy and other Confederate emblems, making a very beautiful medal, and one to be highly prized by the recipient. When Capt. Chilton concluded his presentation remarks, the fair haired little girl climbed on a chair and placed her arms about the neck of the grizzled old hero and kissed him as the veterans and audience cheered.

As the reunion closed and the audience was singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," one old veteran, with his arm around another of his comrades, was heard to say: "Oh Jim, try to live until next year so we can meet each other again." The other replied, "I'll do my best John," and Lee and Jackson looking down from the great bivouac above, came to attention and saluted.

It is the regret of all that the Bryan Band did not play for the reception to the veterans on Carnegie lawn on Tuesday night. One gentleman was heard to say today that there would be a band for them next year if he had to send away for it and pay all the expenses himself.

Dr. J. C. Loggins of Ennis, in one of his reminiscences, tenderly referred to members of Hoods Brigade who formerly lived in Bryan, but who have passed on to the great beyond. He mentioned Judge John H. Henderson who lost an arm at Sharpsburg, Judge A. C. Brietz, crippled in the knee for life at the Wilderness; Whit Montgomery, Lon Holliday, John Stacy, T. J. Bell, J. S. Mooring, Jas. H. Astin.

Judge John C. West of Waco said when the war broke out, he walked from Gatesville to Waco and from there to Calvert and Bryan and on to Millican which was the terminus of the H. & T. C. Railroad, and rode from there to Houston where he enlisted. Bryan at that time could hardly be called even a village, the county seat still being at old Boonville, two miles east of the present court house. The Judge said the contrast between the Bryan of that far off day and the present Bryan was very great.

J. W. Duren of Corsicana said he hauled freight in ox wagons from Bryan to Corsicana just after the war and said the quiet dignified city of today was very different from the wild and turbulent multitude here then who were following the railroad as it progressed toward the north.

The thanks of the citizens are due to Mrs. C. S. Gainer, Mrs. W. S. Howell and Mrs. Frank L. Webb for their artistic, as well as patriotic services in decorating the hall where the sessions of the Brigade were held. "Give them the time of their lives" is the motto already fixed for the reunion of the Brigade to be held here in June 1921.

MISS ESTHER CAVITT HAS WON STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Miss Esther Cavitt of this city has returned from San Antonio where she won the State Championship for lady singles in tennis at a contest held at the San Antonio country club during the past week. There were 14 entries, among them the champions from several Texas cities, and also the intercollegiate champion from the State University.

The games were played by elimination, the finals being as follows: 1st game, Miss Esther Cavitt against Miss Vera Miller, of San Antonio, score, 6-1, 6-2.

Second game, Miss Cavitt against Miss Maria Taylor of San Antonio, intercollegiate champion of the State University at Austin, score 6-3, 6-4.

Third game, Miss Cavitt against Miss Sarah Clayberg of Kingsville, score, 6-0, 6-0.

Miss Esther Cavitt has made a wonderful record as a tennis player on local courts, and her many friends in Bryan are proud of the fact that she had the opportunity to show her skill in the contest at San Antonio and win for herself and Bryan the championship. The Eagle takes great pleasure in extending congratulations to Miss Ethel Cavitt, the champion lady tennis player in Texas.

MISS EMMA RHODES PASSED INTO REST

Miss Emma Rhodes, who for the past year has been ill at the home of her brother, A. W. Rhodes in the northern part of the city, passed peacefully away Monday, July 5th at 10:10 a.m.

Deceased was stricken with paralysis in June, 1919, and has been confined to her bed since that time. The constant loving care and tender ministrations of her devoted niece, Miss Aurea Rhodes and brother, A. W. Rhodes, made the long, weary days and nights of her invalid life as comfortable and bright as it was possible to make them, but nothing that medical skill or faithful nursing could do stopped the dread disease, and the gentle spirit of the patient sufferer took its flight at the hour above stated.

Miss Emma Rhodes was born at Cuba, Alabama, February 25, 1844, and came to Texas many years ago to make her home with her brother, A. W. Rhodes and family in this city. Her life was one of unstinted devotion to loved ones, friends and neighbors, and many there are today who "rise up to call her blessed." The funeral will take place from the residence of A. W. Rhodes Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

R. W. HOWELL WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Quite a few of the local golfers were out to participate in the Country Club handicap tournament yesterday afternoon despite the weather and a number of players being out of the city on vacations. The course was in excellent shape and due to the fine drainage the fairways were dry enough to permit good playing.

Some of the participants in yesterday's game were out for the first time in three and four years and their scores under the circumstances were excellent and with practice they should be able to come in with the lowest scores in the next match.

In a handicap tournament each man is graded and given a certain number of strokes advantage which places each player on an equal footing with the field.

The following are the scores for yesterday's match:

R. W. Howell—Out 677 665 667—58; in 547 557 445—46; total 104, handicap 20, net 84.

Travis Bryan—Out 564 447 457—46; in 534 466 543—40; total 86; handicap none; net 86.

M. L. Parker—Out 485 84' 858—55; in 834 576 845—50; total 105; handicap 15; net 90.

O. J. Parks—Out 789 767 667—63; in 687 768 656—54; total 117; handicap 25; net 92.

E. C. Nash—Out 778 498 676—62; in 676 894 787—62; total 124; handicap 30; net 94.

W. B. Cannon—Out 776 856 571—62; in 756 674 544—48; total 110; handicap 10; net 100.

Ed Hall—Out 813 877 817—80; in 858 677 746—58; total 138; handicap 30; net 108.

O. E. Saunders—Out 777 535 676—54; in 446 665 876—52; total 106; handicap none; net 106.

J. T. Lawler—577, 569 899—65; in 575 969 798—65; total 130; handicap 30; net 100.

P. S. Park, Jr. Buster Sanders prevented from finishing by darkness.

Dr. B. U. Sims called away during game and did not finish.

DR. HARRISON RECEIVES VETERINARY DEGREE

(By Associated Press)
College Station, Tex., July 6.—Dr. R. H. Harrison, known in state athletic circles as "Chicken," who was a member of the first class to receive the degree of doctor of veterinary medicine at Texas A. & M. College in May, 1920, has been appointed as deputy state veterinarian of the State Livestock Sanitary Commission. He will engage in field work, and will maintain headquarters at Fort Worth.

TEXAS WENT DOWN SHOUTING FOR M'ADOO

(By Associated Press)
San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—Strenuous efforts were made last night to divorce the Texans from their McAdoo attachment, but in vain. The distinguished United States Senator from Ohio, Atlee Pomerene, sought and had a conference with Marshall Hicks, but without favorable results. Senator Pomerene is a power in the party. He is a strong Cox leader. He had a telegram from a former Texas congressman saying Texas ought to be for Cox. With that suggestion he sought Mr. Hicks and wanted to know if Texas would not come to Cox if the McAdoo boom burst.

Mr. Hicks answered unequivocally that Cox could not look with hope to Texas; that the people of Texas want McAdoo; the delegation is bound to McAdoo and is taking the lead in behalf of the New York man.

Senator Pomerene expressed regret and said that Cox could carry victory next November. He also refuted some of the scandal spread here about the Ohio governor, branding it as untrue. This did not move Mr. Hicks and as the night session opened the Texans were more insistent than ever that McAdoo will win in the end. For that reason they are refusing to discuss a second choice.

As ballot after ballot was taken yesterday, the Texans continued to occupy the front line McAdoo trenches. They were strategists at all breaks in the convention, trying to turn every incident in favor of their candidate. The Texas delegation went down in the last struggle fighting for William G. McAdoo and shouting "we are the immortal forty." Then the Cox avalanche of the 44th ballot swept over Texas and it was all over but the congratulations.

RED CROSS NOTES.

Red Cross officials of the Brazos County Chapter of the Red Cross today announced the release of a number of new Red Cross movies, many of which will be shown in the near future at Bryan moving picture theatres under Red Cross auspices.

To bring the farm to the city and the city to the farm is the aim of one of the latest of the Red Cross movies on modern concrete road construction. The film is obtainable from Southwestern Division headquarters of the Red Cross at St. Louis through application to your local Red Cross chapter. And if you would like to see it go to the Red Cross office, or telephone the secretary. This newest Red Cross film illustrates interestingly the various operations involved in road making.

The expanded Red Cross motion picture program, which will be announced in detail very soon, provides for a travel series of motion pictures taken by its own photographers abroad and at home. These pictures are of the scenes and events of general interest, not necessarily related to Red Cross activities. Watch for these pictures at Bryan movies.

CHAM. OF COMMERCE BOARD OF DIRECTORS IN WEEKLY MEETING

The Board of Directors of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at 10 o'clock President E. J. Jenkins in the chair and Secretary S. E. Eberstadt at the desk. Present were: E. J. Jenkins, Tyler Haswell, Ed Hall, W. H. Cole, Judge J. T. Maloney, Prof. R. O. Allen, J. D. Martin, Geo. A. Adams, John A. Moore, Jr., Mayor J. M. Lawrence, J. Webb Howell, Oak McKenzie, Travis B. Bryan, Sam B. Wilson, T. K. Lawrence, Lee J. Rountree and Secretary S. E. Eberstadt.

Chairman Lee J. Rountree, of the College-Bryan Interurban schedule Committee reported that the committee had asked the Texas Railway Commission to set a hearing of the case in Austin. The other members of the committee are: Mayor J. M. Lawrence and Judge J. T. Maloney, of Bryan; F. C. Bolton, T. O. Walton and A. B. Connor of College. As soon as the hearing is set at Austin the matter will be gone into fully.

Chairman Sam B. Wilson, of the Trade Extension Committee, reported that on account of the heavy rain Tuesday morning it had been decided to call off the visit to Edge and other points in Brazos county for Wednesday. Mr. Wilson stated that if the picnic was postponed the trip could be made later.

President Jenkins stated there was a vacancy on the Board of Directors and after several ballots were taken a deadlock developed and the two high men received eight votes each on three or four ballots and upon motion of Mayor Lawrence the question went over to the meeting next Tuesday.

Judge J. T. Maloney stated that the Pitts bridge was about completed and all that was necessary now was to lay the flooring which had been purchased on bids in Bryan and would be here in a few days. This is good work.

NEFF CLUB ORGANIZED

(From Friday's Daily)
Pursuant to a call of some of the citizens of Bryan, a meeting was held at the county court house last night and a Pat M. Neff for governor club was organized. Judge J. T. Maloney was elected president of the club and M. M. Erskine, secretary. The membership committee is at work securing additional names and will publish the list later. It is the purpose of the club to prosecute an active campaign in Brazos county in the interest of Mr. Neff's candidacy and he will be invited to address the citizens of the county before the primary.

The Eagle force is under obligation to V. C. Boriskie of near College for one of the finest watermelons seen this season. It weighed about 35 pounds and was as delicious in flavor as it was in size. Mr. Boriskie is one of the progressive young farmers in the College community and our wish for him is that his fields may get rain in season, the boll weevil pass him up and his melons never grow smaller. We thank you, Mr. Boriskie.

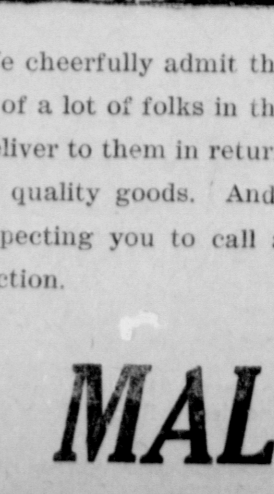

THE TRUE FACTS ABOUT GOVERNOR COX'S DIVORCE

(By George Bailey of the Houston Post and written before Cox's nomination.)
San Francisco, July 6.—The divorce happened when Governor Cox was a member of congress. His first wife filed the suit, alleging incompatibility. It was one of those unions where temperamental differences made happiness impossible. She alleged no discreditable conduct against him, and when her petition was about to be dismissed, because under laws of Ohio incompatibility constituted no ground for divorce, it was amended by inserting the nebulous charge of cruel treatment. Governor Cox did not resist the application, and the decree ensued. The two older children of that marriage remained with their father, the baby going with its mother. The first Mrs. Cox subsequently married again and later the governor remarried. Since that divorce, Cox has been elected three times governor of Ohio, a state that is traditionally republican, and six of whose republican sons have occupied the presidency since the Civil War.

I have had Ohio republicans now living here to tell me that whatever political objections may exist against Cox's election to the presidency, in his private and business life his record is spotless and that in the domestic infelicity that led to the divorce his part through it all was that of a gentleman, a loving father and a real man. Furthermore, that in Ohio no man lives who dare insinuate that there is anything in his career as a citizen and public official that reflect upon his character.

Slander Never Good Politics. I mention this matter as one of the undercurrents of politics which have been felt in the convention. It is never good politics to slander a man, and it is positively disastrous politics to slander a man when the truth has a reasonable chance of getting to the light.

Cox has at least a look-in for the nomination and I have good authority for saying that if at any time yesterday afternoon Cox had obtained a clear majority of the convention, the great bulk of the Palmer strength would have gone to him and made his nomination certain.

THE PATRIOT WHO CUT DOWN THE CHERRY TREE TOLD THE TRUTH ABOUT A LOT OF THINGS!

We cheerfully admit that we cut down the living expenses of a lot of folks in this community and at the same time deliver to them in return for their cash a choice assortment of quality goods. And to tell the truth about it we are expecting you to call and prove this to your own satisfaction.

MALONEY'S

TEXAS FARMERS CONGRESS MEETS ON AUGUST 9 TO 11

The Texas Farmers congress will hold its twenty-second annual session at the Texas A. and M. College, Aug. 9, 10 and 11. The Texas Farmers Congress is composed of the following affiliated organizations and each of these organizations will hold their own separate program together with the general sessions of the congress: State Horticultural society, Texas Dairymen's association, Texas Poultry Raisers' association, Texas Field Crop Improvement association, Texas Truck Growers' association, Texas Farm Management association, Texas Experiment association and the Texas Horse Breeders' association. Each of these organizations will have separate and distinct programs in the various rooms assigned during the daytime, and at the night sessions at which time men of talent and practical experience deliver addresses that are of interest to any one engaged in any line of agricultural pursuit.

Programs Not Finished.

The programs for the general sessions of the farmers congress has not been entirely completed, but a number of very capable men have been secured who will address the general sessions of the congress. These will include Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of Texas A. and M. College; Will B. Munson of Denison, president of the Texas Farmers Congress; Judge L. Gough of Hereford, a very extensive and practical farmer of Western Texas; J. T. Orr, of Dallas, president of the State Council of Agriculture; O. H. Cross, an extensive farmer of Waco. Other speakers of interest to all will be secured and

SHORT HORN CATTLE FOR BRAZOS COUNTY

There are a number of Short-horn cattle herds in Burleson, Brazos and Robertson counties that are a credit to this section. The Short-horn (or Durham) is a native of Durham county, England, and is now an important breed of cattle in most countries in the world including Texas and the United States and is a heavy square-built milk and beef animal combined. The common colors of the Durham or Short-horn cattle are roan, red and white. Thursday morning a party composed of Roger Q. Astin, president of the Brazos County Short-Horn Breeders Association; Jno. C. Burns, secretary of the Texas Short-Horn Association and field representative of the Texas and American Association; A. W. Kennard, of the Texas Department of Agriculture, and Editor Lee J. Rountree, of the Bryan Eagle, left Bryan for a visit to the various herds in this section with a view of organizing the breeders for a sale sometime this winter or spring and for other purposes. The first stop was at the farm of M. W. Sims in the Bottom about fifteen miles west of Bryan. Mr. Sims has some good cattle and the herd consists of twelve cows, bulls and young stock. This was dipping day in that community near Mooring's store and from an inspection of the cattle at the vats for tick eradication it was evidenced beyond question that Brazos county needs more good cattle. Land is too high and feed too valuable to put into ticky or scrub cattle at this time. Mr. Sims is leading the way in his community for better cattle and is succeeding.

At Roger Q. Astin's farm there are about twenty five registered cows and a fine bull in Dawn Haven barn. He has come of the finest young bulls and heifers in the country and they will show and win anywhere. Mr. Astin is feeding them from his silo under the direction of a competent man formerly of the Harrell ranch of Short-Horns. Mr. Astin has fine water and Bermuda grass.

In Robertson county near Hearne, F. L. Wood has 41 cows and about fifteen bulls and young cattle on alfalfa pasture and other feed. Mr. Wood has some fine cows and a splendid bull. He has ideal conditions for the cattle and they were grazing on alfalfa next to timber and water. He has some Astin and King cattle.

The ranch of Tom Field, west of Calvert in Robertson county supports about 35 head of cows, bulls and young cattle. These are good stock from the Astin, Harrell and King breeds. In all Messrs. Astin, Burns, Kinnard and Rountree inspected about 100 cows and 50 head of young stock and bulls. The party took dinner in Hearne and stopped for "refreshments" in Calvert being joined by Messrs. F. L. Wood, Tom Field and arriving here about Thursday night. Mr. Coulter was only able to make his trip to Japan and China when the cablegram reached him announcing the death of his father. He did not feel like making the balance of the trip after receiving the sad news.

WALTER J. COULTER ARRIVES AT VANCOUVER

Walter J. Coulter telegraphed his mother, Mrs. J. W. Coulter, that he arrived at Vancouver last Saturday from his trip "around the world" and would leave immediately for Bryan,

PIPKIN FARM HOME A PERFECT MODEL

A representative of the Eagle had the pleasure late Friday afternoon of being shown over the suburban farm of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Pipkin at their elegant home on College Avenue just south of the city limits. It was a revelation to the Eagle man and would be to any one who has not been over it. The elegant old gray brick mansion, the grounds about it, the barns and lots, the garden, the hog pasture and the entire farm, are in perfect order, without blot or blemish. These things do not just happen, but show careful planning and preparation in advance of the actual execution. The whole thing, from the first furrow in the autumn to the last work in the harvest, is carefully mapped out, just as a general plans the movements of his armies, and then the execution is easy. Rev. Pipkin says his wife is the generalissimo of the entire enterprise and we believe it.

The place is planted almost entirely to cotton and it is practically perfect. Even in size, well fruited and highly cultivated. Fully a half bale to the acre is already assured in grown bolls and the stalks are fairly loaded down with squares and blooms. Up to this time the boll weevil has done very little damage and with three more weeks of fair, hot weather, the yield would be from three quarters to a bale per acre. The garden, orchard, sweet potato patch, corn, peas, cashews, etc., are equally as fine, and if anything, finer. In addition to all that, Mrs. Pipkin has some extra fine Duroc hogs and more than two hundred beautiful Rhode Island red chickens. We might add in passing that a full hundred of them are now ripe for the frying pan and we have a standing invitation to come out. Selah. It was our pleasure to see this wonderful flock of chickens at feeding time and it certainly did not look like hard times at the Pipkin home.

Rev. Pipkin attributes the success of his farming operations to a liberal use of the famous Star Brand fertilizer, not only on his field crops, but garden, orchard and all.

Jimmy Pipkin, little son of the home has an acre in cotton which he is cultivating and has entered the contest for one of the trips on the Farm Boys Special. All we have to say is, if Jimmie does not go on the trip, the boy who beats him on cotton will be going some.

The Pipkin home and farm is a beauty and is an object lesson to all the farmers of Brazos county.

THE TEXAS HONEY PRODUCERS ASSN.

Below is the program of the twenty-eighth annual session of the Texas Honey Producers Association to be held at College Station, Texas, August 9, 10 and 11, 1920:

Letourgeon, San Antonio; Economic Aspects of Apiculture, R. R. Rippert, Extension Entomologist, College Station, Texas; Our Apiary Systems and Management, Arthur S. Sternberg, Lockhart; report of committees; election of officers.

Fourth session, 2 p. m., Wednesday, August 11th—Field meet at the experiment station apiary, under the direction of H. B. Parks, State Apiarist; with practical demonstrations of colony manipulation by C. S. Rude, State Inspector of Apiaries.

LYONS-YOUNG.

Mr. W. A. Lyons of this city was married on last Wednesday evening to Miss Blanche Young of Itasca, Texas, daughter of Dr. J. H. Young, a prominent citizen of that city. The ceremony was solemnized at the Methodist church and the pastor, Rev. J. M. Wynne, officiated. It was one of the most beautiful weddings that little city had ever known. The ushers were J. T. Lawrence, formerly of Bryan, now of Itasca, and Harry Estill of Bryan. Ed Martin of this city acted as best man to the groom. The bride and groom left soon after the ceremony and after a short bridal trip to points in south Texas, they will be at home in this city. Mr. Lyons is a very popular young man and has many friends who offer congratulations and best wishes.

BUSINESS MEN TO MAKE AUTO TRIP

A get acquainted and inspection trip to the extent of thirty five automobile loads of the business men of Bryan, will be made on next Wednesday, July 7th, the objective of the trip being the big annual picnic at Cedar creek bridge near Edge. The business men of Bryan will take advantage of this occasion to meet and fraternize with their friends who will be present on that day. The Chamber of Commerce, through its trade extension committee will send to the picnic 200 pounds of barbecued kid, 200 loaves of bread and five gallons of pickles. C. G. Walker, a member of the committee of arrangements will have charge of barbecuing the meats and delivering them and other edibles at the picnic grounds in time for dinner. One of the largest crowds in the history of the Cedar creek picnic is expected to be present on this occasion.

The auto excursion will assemble at the Commercial Club corner and is scheduled to leave Bryan at 7:30 a. m. An indirect route will be taken for crop inspection purposes, reaching the picnic grounds between 12 and 12:30.

The trade extension committee having in charge the excursion, is composed of Sam B. Wilson, chairman; J. M. Gordon, C. C. Morgan, T. A. Adams, J. I. L. Barron and C. G. Walker.

TWO BRYAN GIRLS RECEIVE STATE HONORS

(By Associated Press)

Austin, Texas, July 5.—The honor list of the University for the spring term has just been compiled. In computing the score of the students an A is counted as 12 a B as 9, a C as 6, a D as 3. The best one per cent of upper classmen made scores of 64 up; the best one per cent of freshmen made scores of 63 up. The remaining groups made scores lower than these, but above 45 in the case of freshmen and 48 in the case of upperclassmen. Students from Bryan on the honor list for the spring term are Jesse Paul Watson and Vivienne Howell.

RED CROSS EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING HELD

The June meeting of the executive board of the Brazos County Red Cross, was an interesting one, the report of the secretary showing conclusively that the Brazos county chapter is still doing a great work.

As announced in the report of the meeting held in May, the local chapter under the direction of Division headquarters at St. Louis, has issued a questionnaire to every soldier, sailor and marine who entered the service from Brazos county, or has moved into the county and to all volunteers who served in the World War, asking if the Red Cross can be of any assistance whatever to them, with the view of "finishing the war job," as the National Red Cross has seen fit to call the campaign. About 900 letters have been sent out in Brazos county, and 200 or more have already been returned to the secretary, and more are coming in with every mail.

The report of the Home Service section for the month of May was read by the secretary as follows:

Families dealt with during the month, 82.

Families receiving aid and information, 79.

Families receiving information only, 3.

Financial assistance given, $214.25.

Amount collected during month on return of Home Service loans, $262.50.

The reinstatement of War Term insurance for the ex-service men has also been a great work in the local Red Cross office during the past month, $54,500, having been reinstated since the last report was given, making the total insurance reinstated by the Bryan chapter during the past two months $94,500. The Brazos County Red Cross is proud of the fact that its secretary has received a personal letter from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance at Washington, D. C. commending the chapter for the work it has done for the ex-service men in this line.

The Nursing Service committee reported that on account of the press in work on the farms at this time of the year, the women and girls in the rural communities, requested the nursing committee to postpone its classes in Home Hygiene and care of the sick until later in the year. This was done, with three full classes already organized and ready to begin the study when the time arrives. The secretary acknowledged with thanks the receipt of a check for $50.00 from Mrs. Harryette Mayo Searcy, as a donation to the Nursing Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Hunter have sold their home place to Mr. and Mrs. Oak McKenzie, and are moving today to their new cottage on an adjoining lot.

FAREWELL BANQUET TO R. A. HARRISON

As a farewell courtesy to Mr. R. A. Harrison who is soon to leave Bryan to make him home in Paris, Texas, a farewell banquet in his honor was given last evening by the ladies of St. Andrews parish in the banquet hall of the parish house, and was one of the most elegant affairs of the kind ever given in Bryan. The menu, prepared by the ladies of the parish, consisted of every choice viand that could possibly be desired and was faultlessly served by a bevy of pretty young ladies of the parish. The table adornments were elegant and bespoke the highly developed artistic touch, as well as the good taste of those having the affair in charge.

Quite a number of the gentlemen friends of Mr. Harrison, those he had been associated with in the church, in fraternal organizations and in business, were present to enjoy the evening with him and partake of the splendid hospitality of the ladies.

Rev. H. B. Jamison, rector of St. Andrews, who sat on the right of the guest of honor, served as master of ceremonies, and the grace and ease with which he presided added charm to the evenings pleasures. Appropriate toasts proposed by Mr. Jamison, were responded to by J. B. Beers, F. C. Oliver, Dr. W. H. Oliver, P. S. Park, Lamer Bethea, R. L. Hearn, General H. B. Stoddard, Tyler Haswell, J. S. Doane, A. J. Buchanan, R. A. Harrison and others. The sentiments expressed by the several speakers were highly complimentary as they related to the guest of honor, who was deeply touched by them as evidenced in his feeling response, and as he said himself, it was the first time in his life he was really serious.

At the conclusion of the banquet, the guests of the evening and the ladies of the parish who were present, assembled in the elegant reception room and a most pleasant social hour was spent in conversation. The guests were favored by the ladies with several splendid vocal and instrumental selections. Before the departure of the guests, a unanimous standing vote of thanks was tendered the ladies for their very cordial hospitality and the rare pleasures of the evening.

Mrs. S. M. Waldrop of El Paso, who has been in Bryan for several months on a visit to her son, A. M. Waldrop and family, went to Houston Saturday where she joined Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Eagle of El Paso on a trip to New York. They will visit Mrs. Waldrop's youngest son, Wess Waldrop, who is now a resident of New York City.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Phillips, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on my first bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today.

PROSPECT NEWS ITEMS

Prospect, Tex., June 6.—As it has been raining so much we haven't much news to write. The health of our community is fairly good. On account of the rains this week people will be late laying by their crops. Corn is damaged on account of the storms. Our prayer meeting is doing nicely and every one is invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Masie Free of College Station are spending a few days here with relatives before they leave for Oklahoma where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Free have moved back to this place and we are glad to have them.

We wish to say again that the Methodist meeting will start at this place next Friday night, July the ninth, and extend to all a welcome invitation.

Miss Jessie Bond spent the week-end at home and also attended the singing convention at Reliance. Mr. and Mrs. Welch also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Whitel and family spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Will George of Wixon.

Miss Lela Bond spent Sunday in the Bullock home.

Miss Sadie Bond spent Sunday in the Welch home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bond attended prayer meeting Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartfield of Steep Hollow spent Sunday with Mrs. Hartfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beal.

We just hope for some pretty weather and crops if it is the Lord's will to send them, and we also hope for pretty weather during our prayer revival here this summer.

SPEAKING FOR THE RED CROSS

(For the Bryan Eagle)

The American Red Cross is said to be the greatest mother in the world. And it certainly has been to the Federal students and their wives, who are attending the Texas A. & M. If they come here without friends or money the Red Cross is always willing to help them in the time of need. Most people consider the Red Cross as a war time unit. But we fellows who went through the war find that they meet us with a smile and the same old spirit they did in the days of war. There are students here from all parts of the state, and some from other states, and they all gladly admit that the Red Cross of Bryan is the best that they ever came in contact with, and that is saying lots. We shall never forget the kindness and good advice bestowed upon us by Mrs. Buchanan, the Red Cross secretary of Bryan. She is loved by every one who comes in contact with her, and we know for a fact that she will put her self to trouble to help some one in need. The Red Cross is loved by every soldier and sailor and should be recognized more than it is by the civilian. As we said before it is not only a war time unit but is a servant of the public.

FEDERAL STUDENTS

REV. HALEY LEAVES BRYAN.

Rev. Everett G. Haley, who came to Bryan some months ago from Cheney, Kansas, to accept the pastorate of the First Christian church, has been forced to give the work because of failing health. His resignation was tendered the congregation Sunday and regretfully accepted. He has been in Bryan, his congregation was well pleased with him and was loath to give him up. Rev. Haley will leave tomorrow with his family for Norwood, Col., where they will reside in the future. Rev. Haley stated to a representative of the Eagle today that he would not again accept locat-ed work as his health would not permit it, this being his second breakdown since he entered ministerial work. The people of Bryan regret to lose Rev. Haley and his splendid family, but their best wishes go with them to their new home.

THE SAME OLD STRIKE STRIKE STRIKE!

(By Associated Press)

Philadelphia, July 5.—The strike of shopmen of the Pennsylvania system, scheduled for today, has been deferred indefinitely, according to an announcement by Harry S. Jeffry, leader of the six local allied shop crafts. This decision was reached after a conference in which Jeffry said the public is a bigger factor than the principles at issue between the railroads and shopmen, and that they have placed the case before the vice president of the road. They are confident he will give a satisfactory adjustment.

FIRST WOMAN SHERIFF IN THE SOUTHWEST IN OKLAHOMA OFFICE

(By Associated Press)

Duncan, Okla., July 6.—The first woman sheriff of the Southwest was installed recently when Mrs. William Gates took the oath of office as sheriff of Stephens county here.

"There will be no bootlegging or moonshining in these parts," Mrs. Gates announced as the chief plank of her platform, and to prove she meant what she said, she seized three stills within a week after she assumed office. Mrs. Gates succeeded her husband, who while on his death-bed summoned the three commissioners of Stephens county and asked them to elect his wife to the office. They promised that they would do so, and that is why Mrs. Gates became the first woman sheriff of the Southwest.

Mrs. Gates despite the fact that she has accepted the responsibilities of the sheriff's office in a county near the oil fields where there is an inclination to disregard laws, is feminine and domestic. She had never before appeared in public life, and her time and energy have been devoted to her home.

The inside work of the office has been assumed by the woman who dictates its policies, while the outside tasks of riding, serving papers and hanging prisoners is delegated to three male deputies. "My husband's policies were satisfactory to Stephens county and I will follow closely in each step of his career," Mrs. Gates said.

HOUSTON DRAG NET CAUGHT BIG BUNCH SONS OF REST

Houston, Tex., July 7.—The edict against loafers issued by Chief Searcy Baker last week went into effect this morning. More than forty, mostly Mexicans, have been arrested.

All loafers must either go to work or remain in jail. Most of the men brought in today elected to go to work as cotton choppers. Several cotton growers were on hand to conduct them to their places of employment. Some of the wages paid ran as high as $2.50 with board.

TEXAS WOMEN AT FRISCO--BRYAN OFFERED EXPLANATIONS

San Francisco, July 7.—Texas women who attended the night caucus in the interest of McAdoo's candidacy are still talking of the dazzling dresses worn by women delegates. They said bright colors predominated in nearly every instance with the women who wore the stunning clothes and that large flowered hats were very much in evidence. One elderly lady with gray hair was described as having a particularly large red hat as though she were just sweet sixteen. Another had a gorgeous gown of green, and hat to match, trimmed with ermine. Then there were many plainly dressed suffragettes, but, said the Texas women, these were costumed in keeping with the styles of the day. Some jewelry of high value was worn but since the local hotel robberies have become so frequent jewelry has suddenly disappeared.

Bryan Offered Soothing Messages By Texans.

William Jennings Bryan, Jr., visited the Texas delegation today and was given a warm welcome. He came to them on the floor of the convention and remained quite a while. Some of the Texans made soothing explanations of why Texas cast her forty votes against the dry plank offered by young Bryan's father last week. They also told him that the Bryans live there.

TRAINS SMASH UP KILL MANY PERSONS

McAlester, Okla., July 5.—Eight were killed, twelve seriously injured, and ten minor injured when a Katy freight train smashed into the rear end of a carnival company's special in Atoka yards Sunday night.

Among the dead were Mrs. Myrtle Duke and baby of Greenville; George Hunt, Belton, and Mrs. McClanahan, of Dallas. J. W. Hulse, of Tyler, received internal injuries.

PRESIDENT WILSON ON THE FOURTH OF JULY

Washington, July 5.—President Wilson spent July Fourth at the White House quietly reading the Independence Day message from Premier Millerand of France and the heads of other foreign governments, and receiving news of the National Convention.

COLLEGE-BRYAN HIGHWAY

County Judge J. T. Maloney states that the material is being received for the repairing of the College-Bryan highway and the work will actively begin as soon as the contractor arrives which will be in a few days. This is good news as the road is badly in need of repair and is rapidly deteriorating.

TO SPEAK FOR MR. NEFF

Hon. Dwight Llewelling of Dallas, will speak at Bryan on Friday night, July 9th at 8:30 p.m. in the interest of Hon. Pat M. Neff, of Waco, for governor.

Other Convention Deadlocks

Washington, July 5.—Record-breaking ballots have occurred at four party conventions where presidential candidates were selected, as shown by the following: 1852—Franklin Pierce, 49th ballot; 1856—James Buchanan, 17th ballot; 1880—James A. Garfield, 36th ballot; Woodrow Wilson, 46th ballot.

Read the Declaration of Independence At the Twenty-Fifth Ballot

San Francisco, Cal., July 5.—The twenty third ballot, the first of today showed no material change in the deadlock, although there were fluctuations on all sides. The leaders stood, Cox, 425; McAdoo 364 1/2, and Palmer, 181 1/2. Palmer gained 15, Cox lost 5 and McAdoo lost 8 as favorite ones stood pat. Missouri threw half a vote to Ring Lardner, humorist, of Washington; and Kentucky gave one vote and a half to Irwin Cobb. The convention was called to order at 1210 (Texas time) by unanimous consent and the Declaration of Independence was read. There is as much of a deadlock as ever when first roll call began.

ONE STATE OFFICER THROWN UP JOB

(By Associated Press)

Austin, Texas, July 7.—J. D. Childsey, commissioner of banking and insurance, has resigned, effective August 1st, to become vice president of a Dallas bank. He had been in office only a few months.
